Sponsorship Opportunities

Northwest suburban resident/businesswoman Melanie Santostefano recently released her first book, “Thoughts Become Things – Six Pillars to Guide You Through Life.” The book was inspired by people in Melanie’s background who taught her valuable lessons, as well as real-life, and at times - gritty experiences - that showed her what her Six Pillars would become: Faith, Forgiveness, Gratitude, Grit, Honor and Humility. Please consider partnering with Melanie for her Book Signing & Launch event through a sponsorship detailed below! Learn more about the book and the inspiration behind it at StStevenPR.com/thoughts-become-things.

“Do you believe your thoughts can be so powerful that they can influence, and even dictate, who you are, how you’re perceived by others and from the highest level – what happens in your life? I do, wholeheartedly, and with every single fiber of my being. Why? Because I am living proof that Thoughts Become Things and you are too, whether you believe that yet or not.”
